Biografie

Dr Patrick Dixon is a physician, Futurist and keynote speaker, a global expert on viral pandemics such as COVID-19 / Coronavirus, who has advised over 400 of the world's largest 2000 companies on a wide range of global trends. For over 22 years he has consistently warned of the global threat from new viral pandemics, such as Coronavirus / COVID-19, in several of his 17 books, many media broadcasts reaching a combined audience of over 300 million, and in many corporate keynotes at large events.

A cancer doctor by first training, Dr Dixon began treating patients with HIV / AIDS in 1987, and started an international foundation in 1988 to help prevent spread of HIV in the poorest nations. HIV is just one of many mutant viruses like the latest Coronavirus to jump from animals to humans, so Dr Dixon has been closely tracking viral pandemics for over 30 years.

Patrick Dixon is often described in the media as Europe's leading futurist. He is a dynamic, provocative and entertaining speaker who advises many of the world's largest corporations on key trends, managing uncertainty, identifying risk and developing opportunities. He digs deep into the strategy of each organization, and creates a unique presentation for each event.

Dynamic speaker with a gift for helping organisations further their strategic goals by understanding future trends. Truly customised presentations—deep and tailored research, valuable insights, exciting multi-media. Ranked as one of the world's 20 most influential business thinkers alive by Thinkers 50. Successful entrepreneur. He has successfully identified hundreds of future business innovations.
