

GENIE GODULA

Genie is a bilingual TV journalist with red-carpet flair.

Type

TV, Radio presentator | Journalist

Inzetbaarheid

Moderator, Dagvoorzitter/ Presentator, Voice-over, Debat

Talen

EN, F

Afkomstig van

Frankrijk

Tijdslijn

2018

Hosting a live 45-minute talk show in Cannes with stars including Isabelle Adjani, Jane Fonda, Helen Mirren, Julianne Moore and Cannes Festival director Thierry Frémaux

2018

Hosting the World Premier of Mission Impossible: Fallout with Tom Cruise

2015

Hosting and Moderating the first ever Luxury and Upscale Brand General Manager Convention for Accor in Bangkok

2013

Hosting a four-way live shot convention for Air Liquide, coordinating simultaneous speakers in Shanghai, Houston, Frankfurt and Paris

2006

Hosting a live daily news

Biografie

Genie Godula is a bilingual broadcast journalist based in Paris. She currently presents the daytime news hour on rolling news network, France24, as well as the weekly magazine, "Inside the Americas" and the cross-cultural show "French Connections."

Genie also regularly hosts film premieres and awards ceremonies including the American Film Festival in Deauville, the Cannes Film Festival and the Monte Carlo Television Festival.

In addition to her red-carpet activities, Genie also regularly moderates corporate events, including conventions, round-tables and awards ceremonies. Most of her clients are repeat customers, a recommendation that speaks for itself.

hour at France 24