

MIGUEL WIELS

From writing hundreds of songs for K3, one of Belgium's most successful pop groups for children and families, to becoming a celebrated pianist, composer, producer, and entrepreneur: Miguel Wiels knows how to turn creativity into success. A personal story about music, entrepreneurship, bold choices, and leadership.

Categorie

Talent & Mastery, Media & Entertainment, Innovation & Creativity, Entrepreneurship, Leadership, Collaboration

Type

Entertainer

Inzetbaarheid

Breakout session, Keynote speaker

Talen

English, Dutch

Afkomstig van

Belgium

Biografie

Miguel Wiels is the man behind hundreds of K3 hits, a pianist, composer, producer, and entrepreneur. From writing successful K3 songs to appearing on the popular Dutch television show Even tot hier, he is a creative all-rounder who has been active at the intersection of music, television, and entertainment for more than three decades.

Miguel Wiels knows better than anyone how to turn creativity into success. He takes audiences on a personal journey through his story of music, entrepreneurship, making choices, and leadership.

Who doesn't know Miguel Wiels?
As a pianist, composer, and producer, he has written more than 240 songs for K3. He became a household name thanks to De Notenclub and spent many years on stage as bandleader for major television shows, working alongside personalities such as Peter Van de Veire and Paul de Leeuw. In Belgium, Miguel Wiels became a surprise finalist on The Masked Singer. In the Netherlands, audiences know him primarily as the musical sidekick to Van der Laan & Woe on the award-winning show Even tot hier.