ground-breaking perspectives and possibilities to organisations who seek to become dynamically future-active.

Simone is a masterful communicator, and a highly sought-after inspirational and insightful coach and mentor. Her unique and diverse portfolio of work creates a strong platform for developing transformational leaders and building exceptional organisations.

Her client base includes organisations in Finance, Resources, Super Funds, Real Estate, Regional Government, Business Associations, Network Marketing, Creative Industries, Regional and Rural Business Development, SMEs, as well as individual C-Suite Executives and Professional Speakers.

Simone's creative capacities move effortlessly and pragmatically between stage and boardroom. Whether she is singing, directing, telling quirky leadership stories or displaying the power of creative leadership, her presence brings extraordinary insights into the new world that is evolving.

Simone has worked as a Lecturer at Griffith University (Qld Conservatorium) and Queensland University of Technology in Acting for Musical Theatre and Performance Studies, and as Guest Director for the Opera Studio at the University of Southern Queensland.

As a leader, Simone is living proof that you don't have to be under 30 to effectively lead the new generations. However, you do have to be operating from your Iconic Brilliance™ if you want them to listen to you! Simone's warmth and vulnerability opens the curtains on your authentic leadership voice. Will you embrace it as the superpower it is?

Intuitive, inspirational, and interactive, Simone is available for keynote presentations, corporate workshops, executive coaching & consultancy, media appearances and podcast interviews.
