Anders Indset is the world's leading business philosopher with seven international bestsellers. Having delivered over 1,500 speeches in 60 countries, he inspires executives, politicians, and decision-makers worldwide at the intersection of humanity and technology. His ability to anticipate future scenarios makes him a sought-after speaker at the most relevant conferences around the globe, such as the World Economic Forum, the Global HR Summit, and the Mobile World Congress.

Anders Indset combines Norwegian values and charisma with German clarity of thought and an engaging, American-influenced presentation style. Thanks to this unique combination, he is known as the “Rock’n’Roll Plato”.

The Norwegian-born polymath is also Chairman of the Njordis Group and an active deep-tech investor, linking his practical philosophy directly with the corporate and societal arenas. With his visionary thinking, he not only serves as an advisor to leading international institutions but also plays a pivotal role in shaping the debate on the economic and cultural challenges of our time.
