Biografie

An adventurous coach, a passionate serial entrepreneur and networking guru is what many publicly know about Gil. Following his three-pillar mission to Discover, Connect and Empower, he has devoted his time on coaching and networking activities with his constant exposures at international events.

His 23+ years of living & business experience in Israel, Canada, USA, England, Russia and Singapore has led him to become a leading networking mastery expert in Russia and around the world. He also co-founded 20+ projects and mentored 1000+ startups in diverse business industries.

Today Gil is a co-founder of the following companies:

Meet Partners – a company specializing in networking and edutainment events

Global Networking Marathon – educational project focusing on networking development in Russia; this project is a part of Strategic Networking Academy

MeetSpeakers – speakers bureau providing services of international speakers

Global Club – a company organizing business travelling to industry-leading experts; exclusive representative of Tony Robbins in Russia and CIS

ChallengeME – online-system to set and achieve goals

DreamAcademy – educational project with practical workshops for entrepreneurs from industry leaders.

He also wrote his own book, a success in the Russian market called “New Code of Networking”.
