Biografie

He is the co-founder of shareNL and of the Sharing Cities Alliance. Being an independent expert in the field of sharing & platform economy, he advises startups, businesses, cities, and (inter)national governments.

He is also co-author of a business book called 'Share' and he is a global keynote speaker on the sharing & platform economy and related emerging technologies like artificial intelligence, blockchain, and autonomous mobility. Over the past years he gave 200+ keynote presentations all over the world: from Paris to Singapore, and from New York to Tokyo. And as a spokesperson for the international press he has contributed to and/or appeared in 100+ publications.

Furthermore he is one of the initiators of Amsterdam Sharing City and member of the advisory board of the City of Seoul.
